

Suggested Tools

Following is a list of the Tools the workgroup has suggested to date, and which workgroup member has agreed to take the lead on identifying resources to adapt:

Road map - WI & MN, MI – Complete; Need OH, IL, IN, KY?

FAQs for families on the importance of genetic referral when a infant is diagnosed with permanent hearing loss - Yaoli

FAQs for professionals on the importance of genetic referral when a infant is diagnosed with permanent hearing loss - Yaoli

Develop and disseminate a web-based presentation or training module on why, when, how to refer – needs workgroup lead

Develop/adapt brochures for providers to give to families - Michelle

Develop and disseminate a list of genetic contacts for each R4 state (target audience audiologists, PCP, medical care providers, interventionists) – need workgroup members to provide for their state.

Develop powerpoint for incorporation into other physician training that addresses who, when, why to refer for genetic services - Molly

Develop and disseminate recommended R4 guidelines for PCP follow-up of children with diagnosed hearing loss that includes genetic referral - Ravi

Develop/adapt a brochure for Part C that discusses the importance of and need for genetic referrals for infants with a diagnosed hearing loss - Joan

Develop materials for Part C to provide to parents to offer information for families that includes helping families ask their medical providers for a referral (when insurance requires) - Joan

Adapt Michigan EHDI online module for Regional application – need workgroup member to take the lead

Med page today - need workgroup member to take the lead

Hands & Voices – need workgroup member to take the lead

Develop and disseminate materials to help the family know how to prepare/what to expect at the genetic consultation