

MEMSCIS

Positioning Statement

MEMSCIS is an essential tool designed to communicate critical information in a medical emergency about a child's special needs when you may not be available.

Key Messages

- An easy-to-use, proven online tool that has supported hundreds of children in responsive emergency care
- Families, specialist and primary care providers can communicate easily for emergency care
- An accessible web-based tool for sharing current information about a child with special health care needs